Happy Holidays, Everyone!

“This newsletter finds Christina and me gearing up for new adventures. The construction process for the new addition is tentatively slated to begin sometime this spring. We’re also in the process of planning our summer reading program, “Fizz, Boom, Read!” In addition, the library purchased licensing to show movies, which we inaugurated on Wednesday, December 11. We’ll be showing movies every Wednesday at 7pm at least until May, when summer activities (and prolonged daylight!) may change or curtail weekly screenings. New books and movies are steadily arriving, so stop by and check out our selections! Also, keep in mind that we can get pretty much anything we don’t have on hand either through our Four Rivers Group or via Interlibrary Loan! So, dew drop inn!” ~Jack Albrecht, Director

‘Tis the Season for Giving!

We have received quite a few donations this holiday season!

Many thanks to everyone who has continued to support the Madison County Library. We are still accepting donations and room sponsorships as we move toward the construction phase of the addition building project. Donations are tax-deductible and go to a great cause...helping promote literacy and community in Madison County!
