This Month at Thompson-Hickman

Howdy, Folks!

“As the builders approach the finish line on our new addition, Christina and I are busy getting the lay of the land for our new adventure. Our space will be increasing by over 200%, which will accommodate a lot more materials and services.

Last month I attended the Broad Valleys Federation retreat in Butte. I enjoyed the sessions, but especially appreciated networking with my colleagues. It is this collaboration among Montana libraries and their staffs, as well as their generosity of spirit and sharing, that help guide us in serving our communities. It’s reassuring that we can rely on you folks out there to help us think outside the proverbial box. Your inspiration and encouragement are helping to reinvent our communities’ perception of libraries. Thanks!” ~ Jack
