July 2013

This Month at Thompson-Hickman

Many visitors to Virginia City enjoyed a breathtaking view of the Virginia City Fireworks Show from the lawn of the Library.

“Howdy, folks! After the Fourth of July the summer just seems to be on runaway mode, doesn’t it? So far we’ve had a busy summer with many visitors from all over the world, using the free library Wi-Fi, taking advantage of our free computers with Internet, doing archives research, or just stopping by for a cup o’ joe, a cookie, and some conversation.

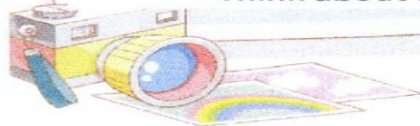

Just a couple of things I’d like to bring to your attention:

- * We’ve got an Amazon Wish List for purchasing library materials. If you’d like to buy the library a book or a DVD we’ve got listed, just go to Amazon.com and search under “Find a Wish List or Registry” for “Thompson-Hickman” (without the quotes). Thanks!
- * The library is hoping to have a stalwart person head and organize its own Friends Group. A library Friends Group does important work in supporting the library in many different ways. More information can be found at <http://www.ala.org/united/friends>.” ~Jack Albrecht, Director

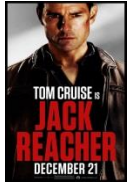

Have a great rest of the Summer, from your Library staff!
