This Month at Thompson-Hickman

“Summer is almost here and that means it’s time for leisure reading. Stop by the library and check out our selection of new titles, or let us help you find a book by your familiar favorites!

Our ongoing book and DVD sale should satisfy a broad range of tastes, anything from self- improvement to guilty pleasure reading.

Our storytime (Tuesdays at 10:30am) is beginning to be a popular routine for kids and parents.

Join us for a reading romp filled with songs and silliness!

Christina and I hope to see you at the library! Stop by for coffee, a cookie, and conversation!”

-Jack Albrecht, Library Director

This month, the Madison County Library Board has to say goody-bye to Gary Forney, who has served on the Board for 8 years. He has been an outstanding Board Member and he is going to be greatly missed. Fortunately, he will continue to serve on the Building Committee to assist with the building of the Library addition.

Thank you for everything Gary!

As a result, our Board now has an opening for an Ennis/Cameron Representative. If you live in that area and are interested in becoming part of the Madison County Library Board, please give us a call at 406-843-5346.

Storytime

Tuesdays @ 10:30

It's Your Bloomin' Library!

Decorate your County Library by donating a bouquet of flowers throughout the Spring & Summer to display in the entryway. We will put a sign next to the bouquet that says, "Donated by..." with your name!

Thank you Ruth Hauri for being the first to decorate "your bloomin' library!"
